REGIONS OF UZBEKISTAN

Tashkent city

Tashkent is the capital of Uzbekistan and also the largest city in Central Asia. For many years, Tashkent has been the most important business and cultural center of the country, attracting tourists and entrepreneurs from around the world.

Tashkent region

The Tashkent region is located in the north-west of Uzbekistan, between part of the Tien Shan Mountains and the Syrdarya River. The center of the region is Nurafshan city.

Republic of Karakalpakstan

The culture and history of the Karakalpak people is unusually rich, because people lived in this territory back in the Neolithic era.

The center of the region is Nukus city, which has an international airport. From there you can get to the major cities of Karakalpakstan – Muynak, Kungrad, Beruni, Turtkul and other places.

Bukhara region

The Bukhara region was named the center of Islamic culture because of the most popular city among tourists – Bukhara, which is the center of the region and the birthplace of outstanding thinkers and preachers of the Holy Koran.

The history of the region dates back to the 2nd century BC, and the first mention of Bukhara was the capture of the settlement by the Persian king Cyrus in the 6th century BC.

Andijan region

The administrative center of the region is Andijan, which in ancient times was located on the Great Silk Road, and is also known as the birthplace of the founder of the Mughal Empire, the Uzbek poet and writer Zakhiriddin Muhammad Babur

Khorezm region

Khorezm is the oldest and truly unique region of Uzbekistan. The first records about Khorezm are noted in the book of Zoroastrians – Avesta. Therefore, this region is considered one of the cradles of human civilization. At the beginning of the first millennium AD, the powerful state of the Khorezmshahs was formed here, which subsequently fell from the invasion of the army of Genghis Khan.

Samarkand region

Alexander the Great, Genghis Khan, Amir Timur – these are the names of outstanding conquerors and commanders who left an undeniable mark on the history of the region. During the reign of the Timurids, Samarkand became the center of science and culture of the entire Ancient East.

Kashkadarya region

The Kashkadarya region is one of the most environmentally clean locations, based in the Kashkadarya River basin. The toponym Kashkadarya has several meanings: "river lost in the sand" and "transparent, clean river."

Jizzakh region

The Jizzakh oasis has a long history, and the nature of the region enchants at first sight. In the Bakhmal and Gallaaral regions you can see amazing underground paths called "Temir Darvoza". On the southeastern edge of the Kyzylkum desert in the Jizzakh region, Lake Aydarkul, with a yurt camp on a shore, amazes with its magnificence

Navoi region

Navoi region is the youngest in Uzbekistan. Its administrative center, Navoi city, was founded in 1958. The location for the construction of the city was not chosen by chance it is the center of active development of mining and metallurgical industry.

Surkhandarya region

Surkhandarya region is notable for mountain and eco-tourism. In the region you can see an incredibly beautiful natural landscape: caves, massifs, gorges. These places attract a lot of attention from travelers and adventure seekers.

Namangan region

Namangan region is an ancient land of the country, which is confirmed by various archaeological finds and architectural monuments that tell about the primitive way of life of the local population, as well as monuments from the Bronze and Stone Ages.

Syrdarya region

Syrdarya region, located on the banks of one of the longest rivers in Central Asia – Syrdarya, has enormous potential for the development of eco-tourism. Fishing and agritourism are also very popular in the region. Fergana region is one of the most picturesque and rich places in Uzbekistan. It is located in the Fergana Valley in the middle of the Pamir-Alai and Tien Shan mountain systems.

Fergana region

Fergana region is one of the most picturesque and rich places in Uzbekistan. It is located in the Fergana Valley in the middle of the Pamir-Alai and Tien Shan mountain systems.
